

SAN FRANCISCO ADJACENT INDUSTRIAL USES DISCLOSURE AND AFFIDAVIT (C.A.R. Form SF-AIU, 11/12)

This disclosure concerns the residential property situated in the City of San Francisco, County of San Francisco, State of California, described as YOUR ADDRESS ("Property").

- 1. GENERAL INFORMATION: Both local law and state law contain requirements regarding disclosure of adjacent industrial uses to those who intend to buy or lease residential real property adjacent to properties containing such industrial uses.
2. STATE LAW: Disclosures of adjacent industrial uses is required if the transferred property is a residential building containing four or fewer dwelling units. California Civil Code Section 1102.17 states, 'The seller of residential real property subject to this article who has actual knowledge that the property is adjacent to, or zoned to allow, an industrial use described in Section 731a of the Code of Civil Procedure, or affected by a nuisance created by such a use, shall give written notice of that knowledge as soon as practicable before transfer of title.' This statute does not contain a definition of 'adjacent.' This Disclosure may be made on C.A.R. Forms SP-SPQ or SSD.
3. LOCAL LAW:
A. San Francisco has adopted a local ordinance (San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 35) designed to protect industrial uses which are located adjacent to other properties which are used in whole or in part for residential use. San Francisco Administrative Code Section 35.3 defines 'adjacent property' as any property 'inside or within 150 feet of an Industrial Use Zoning District.'
B. Chapter 35 requires that every transferor make and sign, upon penalty of perjury, an affidavit stating that the transferor provided the disclosure required by Section 35.6 and shall attach a copy of the disclosure statement actually provided. This notice shall be provided at the time required by California Civil Code Section 1102.3, which provides that the notice shall be given (i) as soon as practicable before transfer of title in the case of a sale, and (ii) as soon as practicable before execution of the contract in the case of transfer by a real property sales contract, as defined in Civil Code Section 2985, or by a lease together with an option to purchase, or a ground lease coupled with improvements. See California Civil Code Section 1102.3 for additional information. The transferor is not required to provide a copy of the then-current text of Chapter 35. This affidavit, with the attached disclosure notice, shall be maintained in the transferor's records for not less than two years, and a copy shall be provided to the City or the transferee upon request.
C. Penalties for Failure to Provide Disclosure. Any person who fails to provide the required disclosure may be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $500 for each failure to provide said disclosure. The Ordinance gives to the current and former transferees of the adjacent residential property the right to sue for damages of not less than $500 for each failure to provide the disclosure and whatever other relief the Court deems appropriate. In addition, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to order of the Court. The remedy available under Section 35.6(d) is in addition to any other existing remedies that may be available to the transferee. Therefore sellers and landlords should be careful to make complete disclosures.

4. Disclosure of Adjacent Industrial Uses pursuant to San Francisco Administrative Code Section 35.6: 'You are purchasing or leasing property that may be adjacent to an existing industrial use. Industrial uses may subject you to inconveniences or discomfort arising from industrial operations, which may include, but are not limited to: noise, odors, dust, chemicals, smoke, operation of machinery, and loading and unloading operations. One or more of these types of inconveniences may occur even if the industrial use is operating in conformance with existing laws and regulations and locally accepted customs and standards for operations of such use. If you live near industrial uses, you should be prepared to accept such inconveniences or
